

LONDON VS NEW YORK

- It is an almost perfect reconstruction of a playhouse that stood very close to here over 300 years ago in London. It is named after famous English writer.
(Shakespeare's Globe)

-It is the second largest building in Europe, which has soaring dome. At the top of it, there is the Golden Gallery, where you get stunning views across London..
(St Paul's Cathedral)

- This is home of the insurance company. This striking building was designed by Richard Rogers.
(Lloyd's building)

- This enormous palace has been the official home of the kings and queens of Great Britain.
(Buckingham Palace)

- This is the world's most famous wax museum on Baker Street.
(Madame Tussauds)

- With its distinctive stone towers, it is one of London's most famous bridges. (Tower Bridge)

- This is a glass building. It is often known as the Gherkin's because of its unusual shape. It has 40 floors of offices, and London's highest restaurant at the top.
(30 St. Mary Axe)

- Decorated with red lanterns, stone lions, and brightly painted gates. It is the heart of London's Chinese community.
(Gerrard Street)

- It is where the British government meets to make new laws.
(Houses of Parliament)

-This is a huge observation wheel.
(The London Eye)

-It is an urban park in Manhattan. It is also the fifty -largest park in New York City.
(Central Park)

-There is organised New York Eve each year.
(Times Square)

-This is a skyscraper. It is called after its creator.
(Rockefeller Centre)

-This is a bridge at West 20th Street.It was abandoned railway. Now it is full of plants.
(High Line)

- It is a famous commuter rail terminal located at 42nd Street and Park Avenue in Midtown.
(Grand Central Terminal)

- This is a place where most Broadway theatres are located.
(Theatre District)

- It is the world's most famous department store.

(Harrods)

- It is a concert hall in London dedicated to Queen Victoria's husband.

(Royal Albert Hall)

- It is renowned for its luxury fashion and beauty stores as well as award-winning restaurants and theatres

(Covent Garden)

- It's a well - known statue on Liberty Island on Manhattan.

(Statue of Liberty)

- It is a famous skyscraper in Manhattan. It's also the nickname of New York.

(Empire State Building)

- You can see artifacts, architecture and other expensive collection of art.

(Metropolitan Museum of art)

- It's the largest bridge in the New York City.

(Brooklyn Bridge)

- It's famous district in the New York. (Manhattan street)

- This building was destroyed in an attack in a New York in 2001.

(World Trade Center)

- This famous square was built to celebrate the british naval victory at the battle in 1805.

(Trafalgar Square)

- It looks after the british Government's money.

(Bank of England)

- It is best known as a prison, where enemies of England kings and queens had their heads chopped off.

(Tower of London)

- It is the headquarters of the Roman Catholic Church in Britain. Before it was built, it was used for bull fight.

(Westminster Cathedral)

- It contains the largest ethnic Chinese population outside of Asia

(Chinatown)

London vs New York Challenge

Game Rules:

Version 1

Put all pointers on “start”. Put colorful cards in the middle of the board. The pictures of monuments put around the game. All students roll a dice. A person who gets the highest number of dots starts. If you stand on the field number 4, you take the card with the same number. The winner is a person who has the bigger amount of cards.

Version 2

Put all pointers on “start”. Put colourful cards in the middle of the board. The pictures put around the game. All students roll a dice and a person who rolls the highest number of dots starts. Put the cards in one pile. Put the cards with numbers on top, and riddle face down. It doesn't matter which card you take. The winner is a person, who as first reach “finish” field.